DEA secy hits back at Acharya on 'wrath of markets' remark

ARUP ROYCHOUDHURY
New Delhi, 2 November

A top civil servant has made a subtle comeback at Reserve Bank of India (RBI) Deputy Governor Viral Acharya's warning that governments that interfere with central banks suffer the "wrath of the markets".

"Rupee trading at less than 73 to a dollar, Brent crude below $73 a barrel, markets up by over 4% during the week and bond yields below 7.8 per cent. Wrath of the markets?" said Subhash Chandra Garg (pictured), secretary in the finance ministry's department of economic affairs, on Twitter on Friday.

"Wrath of the markets?" is a direct reference to Acharya's statement last Friday. Acharya had on October 26 delivered a scathing speech seeking more independence for the RBI. He said governments that did not respect their central bank's independence would sooner or later "incur the wrath of financial markets, ignite economic fire, and come to rue the day they undermined the regulatory institution".

He had said the central bank must have more powers to supervise public sector banks, and keep its balance sheet strong, apart from ad-quate regulatory scope. This independence, he said, was necessary to secure greater financial and macroeconomic stability.

Since then, several reports have said the centre in three strongly worded letters referred to Section 7 of the RBI Act, which allows the government to issue binding directions to the central bank as it may "consider necessary in public interest". The three letters in recent weeks are said to have been drafted by Garg and touched upon contentious topics. These include the government's demand that RBI transfer as much as ₹3.6 trillion worth of excess capital as surplus to the centre, that it eases prompt corrective action (PCA) rules in line with global norms, and that it gives some breathing space to wer sector non-performing assets so as to prevent several of them going into bankruptcy proceedings.

There were reports that RBI Governor Urjit Patel would resign if the government invoked Section 7.

That situation seems to have been avoided for now as Patel has called a board meeting of the RBI on November 19. Garg and Financial Services Secretary Rajiv Kumar are the Finance Ministry's representatives on the RBI board of directors.

Finance Minister Arun Jaitley does not communicate that frequently with Patel and the deputy governors of the RBI. However, he is known to share a cordial relationship with all of them. Informal channels of communication, which have always existed between North Block and Mint Road, are currently handled primarily by Garg and Kumar.

The buzz in bureaucratic circles is that whether through written communication or these informal channels, instead of negotiating on contentious issues, North Block tried to force its will upon the central bank. That may have prompted Acharya to make a fiery speech last Friday.

GST collections raise fiscal deficit concerns

ISHAN BAKSHI
New Delhi, 2 November

Robust goods and services tax (GST) collections in October notwithstanding, the government is likely to miss its budgeted GST target for the current financial year, which will make it difficult to rein in the fiscal deficit at 3.3 per cent of gross domestic product (GDP).

The fiscal deficit is likely to touch 3.5 per cent of GDP, notes a report by Kotak Institutional Equities. An earlier report by economists at YES Bank had pegged the deficit at 3.7 per cent of GDP in the worst case scenario.

While direct tax collections have been robust so far, much of the concerns stem from slippages on the indirect tax side. Recent data released by the Controller General of Accounts (CGA) showed that indirect tax collections grew by a mere 1.8 per cent in the first half of the current financial year.

On Thursday, the government released GST collection figures for October (tax payable for September). These showed that collections had surged to ₹1.01 trillion, up from ₹944 billion the month before. But, the overall run-rate so far is less flattering.

"Accounting for refunds, on a cash accounting basis, September collections would likely be around ₹939 billion implying a 7MFY19 run-rate of around ₹900 billion," notes Kotak Institutional Equities.

According to this estimate, total GST collections, after making adjustments for refunds, work out to around ₹6,303 billion so far. Of this, the Centre's share is estimated at around ₹2,762 billion, while ₹2,993 billion accrues to states. The compensation cess works to around ₹548 billion.

By comparison, the total GST target for FY19 is pegged at ₹12.5 trillion. Of this, the centre (including unallocated IGST) and states target is ₹6.5 trillion and ₹5.07 trillion respectively. The balance ₹900 billion is expected to accrue from the compensation cess.

Now, with GST collections running at a lower rate than required, a higher run rate is required in the remaining months in order to meet the budget estimates.

"We note that the required run-rate for the rest of FY19 is around ₹1.24 trillion," notes Kotak Institutional Equities.

On its part, the Centre could reduce its GST shortfall by allocating a higher portion from the IGST collections. It could also hold on to a part of undistributed IGST at year-end as the YES Bank report suggests.

Further, it could also bolster its collections by drawing on half of the unallocated compensation cess after it passed

IMF against interference of govts on central banks
The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has said it was monitoring the development in India with regard to the reported rift between the RBI and the Centre.

It expressed its opposition to any move that compromises with the independence of central banks anywhere in the world. "We're monitoring the development on that issue and will continue to do so," IMF Director of Communications Gerry Rice said.

"Just stepping back, as we've said this before, I've said this before standing here that we support clear lines of responsibility and accountability... And, international best practice is that there should be no government or industry interference that compromises the independence of the central bank and financial supervisor," Rice said. PTI
